

Washington, DC- Congressman Steve King (R-IA) joined Governor Branstad (R-IA) and members of the Iowa Delegation today to discuss a number of important issues affecting Iowans. King released the following statement after their meeting:

"Today's meeting covered a variety of topics ranging from education reform and economic development to transportation and health care," said King. "It's important for us to meet to focus on what we can work together on to develop and maintain the strong status of our state."

Congressman King (2nd in from the left) meets with Governor Branstad and other members of the Iowa delegation today in the Capitol.

###